

What is "portability"?

Portability is a term used to describe the process of transferring your Section 8 rental assistance from a Housing Authority in one City/State to a Housing Authority in another City/State.