

When is a change in the contract rent effective?

The owner must provide written notice of any request for an increase 60-calendar days prior to the contract anniversary; any increase approved will be effective the anniversary date of the contract.

If the owner's notice of the increase is not received at least 60 days prior to the contract anniversary, any increase approved will be effective the month following the anniversary.