

How do I report criminal activity and/or fraud to the Housing Authority?

The Housing Authority welcomes the reporting of information in our effort to immediately address criminal activity and/or fraud. Information may be submitted verbally or in writing; the reporting person can identify him/herself, or remain anonymous.

Depending on the nature of the alleged fraud, in addition to the local administrative investigation, the Housing Authority may refer the case to the Officer of the Inspector General for investigation and possible criminal prosecution.