

How do I find my position on the waitlist?

We do not provide applicants a waiting list number. This is because your position fluctuates as new applicants are added and others taken off the waitlists and qualification for preference points change